COMPLEX AREA SUPERINTENDENTS' MESSAGE

Welcome to this year's annual Central O'ahu District Band Festival. For over 46 years, our band program provided an excellent opportunity for students to cultivate a love for music, the dispositions and character traits that will support them moving forward to be college, career and civic-minded citizens.

We are fortunate to have our dedicated Central District Band Directors coordinating these events, giving tirelessly of their expertise, joy and commitment for developing our students' musicianship. The success of our festival is also contributed to the continued support from our district and school office staff, administrators, parents, students and community partners.

We would also like to extend a warm mahalo to our visiting clinicians for their support, guidance and mentorship. We are honored to have them partner with our Central District Band Directors.

Please sit back, relax and enjoy an evening of entertaining music performed by the students and their dedicated instructors. Thank you for being here. We hope you will be captivated by the energy and music providing you many lasting memories.

Mr. John Erickson,
Complex Area Superintendent

FESTIVAL CHAIRPERSON'S MESSAGE

On behalf of the students and band directors of the Central District, I would like to welcome you to the 46th Central District Band Festival. Thank you for being here tonight to show your support of all the hard work and dedication that has been put into this festival. It's heartwarming to be able to continue the tradition of this festival after not being able to come together for the past few years.

Thank you for joining us to celebrate the arts and music in our schools in the Central District. This festival is only possible thanks to our supportive administration and elected officials. The directors and students appreciate your continued interest to keep music and the arts alive in our schools.

Thank you to our students for all their countless hours of rehearsal, practice, and preparation to make tonight possible. There would be no concert tonight without you and your dedication to making music.

Finally, thank you to all the families who have supported these students and their directors from the start. Your support of these fine musicians allows us to continue to enrich their lives through these musical experiences.

We sincerely hope that you enjoy tonight's performances!

Mahalo,
Holly Hayashi

CLINICIAN

DR. ERIC WILTSHIRE

Dr. Eric Wiltshire is in his 16th year at the University of Oregon where he directs the Oregon Athletic Bands and teaches instrumental music education. His music education students now occupy teaching positions throughout Oregon, Washington, California, Hawaii and across the United States. He has a Bachelor of Arts in Music from San Jose State University where he studied trombone with Robert Szabo and band with Vernon Read and Scott Pierson. His Master of Arts in Music is from Washington State University where he studied trombone and band with Don Hower, jazz with Greg Yasinitsky, and conducting with Keating Johnson. His PhD in Music Education was earned at the University of Washington where he was a student of Steven Morrison (Music Education), Timothy Salzman (Conducting) and Brad McDavid (Athletic Bands). Before coming to the University of Oregon he taught at The University of Dayton and for seven years in public schools in Santa Cruz, California (Santa Cruz High School and Mission Hill Junior High School) and Eagle, Idaho (Eagle High School).

As a Music Education professor, Dr. Wiltshire has published articles in Contributions to Music Education, Journal of Research in Music Education, The Instrumentalist, and is a regular contributor to the Teaching Music Through Performance in Band series. He has presented research and scholarship at a variety of conferences including the Oregon Music Educator's Association Conference, NAFME Northwest Regional Conference, and the College Band Director's National Association Athletic Band Symposium. He is also active as an adjudicator and clinician throughout the Northwest.

As Director of Athletic Bands, Dr. Wiltshire has led the Oregon Marching Band in Four Rose Bowl and Rose Parade appearances, two College Football National Championship Games, two NCAA Final Four tournaments, and a variety of other bowl games and NCAA Basketball Tournament appearances. This past January Dr. Wiltshire worked for the College Football Playoff as a band liaison at the National Championship Game at SoFi Stadium in Los Angeles. He is active as an arranger for marching and pep bands, and is the primary visual designer for the Oregon Marching Band.

CLINICIAN MR. PAUL ARCEO

Paul Arceo resides in Hilo with his wife and three children. Born and raised on the Big Island of Hawai'i, Paul Arceo graduated from Hilo High School. He attended the University of Hawai'i at Hilo and transferred to the University of Hawai'i at Manoa completing his degree in Music Education in 1988. Upon graduation Mr. Arceo returned home to Hilo to teach in the Department of Education for 13 years. During his tenure as he served as Band Director and music teacher for Hilo High School, Laupahoehoe Elementary and High School, Waiakea High School and Hilo Intermediate School. He also taught at the University of Hawai'i at Hilo serving as the Vulcan Band and Wind Ensemble director. In 2001, Mr Arceo was offered the prestigious position of Hawai'i County Bandmaster a position which he holds to this day. The band is celebrating its 140 th year of continuous service to the Big Island and is the second oldest band in the State of Hawai'i only second to the Royal Hawaiian Band. Paul only the 12th director of the bands illustrious history and is the 2nd longest serving Bandmaster. In 2006, Paul was awarded the manager of the year for the County of Hawai'i.

Mr. Arceo has served as guest conductor, adjudicator, clinician and brass tutor for various groups. He has taught privately for the past 35 years and has been a brass resource for his community. He is a strong advocate for Music Education and importance of keeping it in today's curriculum.

Paul Arceo is a trumpet player who studied with the following teachers, Armando Mendoza, Dr. Takeo Kudo, Don Hazzard and Richard Lum.

“ I feel very fortunate to have had the opportunity to study with these excellent teachers and firmly believe that each teacher guides you in a different way and exposes you to different ideas and concepts. It is through their knowledge and wisdom that we are able to grow and become more proficient musicians.” - Paul Arceo

JOIN US IN SINGING

Star-Spangled Banner

Oh, say can you see
by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed
at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars
thru the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare,
the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night
that our flag was still there.
Oh, say does that star-spangled banner yet wave,
O'er the land of the free
and the home of the brave?
